

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director, Intelligence
SUBJECT : Central Intelligence Bulletin

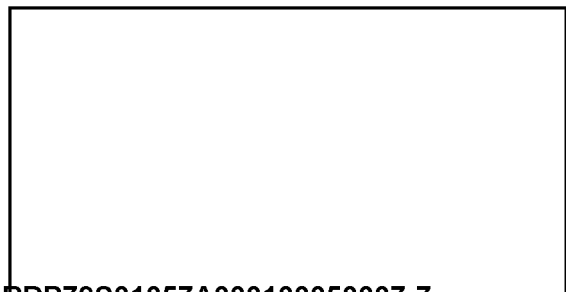

1. Since the first issuance of the new daily publication on 14 January 1958, progress can be reported in several important areas. Participation by the IAC departments and agencies has been active, constructive, and unremitting. The publication is reaching the high-level readers for whom it was intended, and their comments on the whole indicate that the publication is serving their general needs.
2. The mechanics of production are well in hand, and the format seems fairly well set.
3. The DD/P area has taken a most active role, and their resources are being made available in a satisfactory manner. I have further plans, however, which I expect to work out with Helms.
4. The DCI's desire that we run a weekly listing of significant intelligence papers produced in the community will be taken care of, I trust, by getting the cooperation of the producers in responding to the attached memorandum.
